

Coach's Code of Conduct

I will conduct myself in a Christian like manner with respect to coaches, players, referees and spectators.

As a coach, I recognize that the game belongs to the players and will put the welfare of the game and players above any personal gain.

I will do my best to learn the fundamental skills and teaching techniques related to the game in which I coach and become familiar with the rules of the game.

As a coach or assistant coach, I will not engage in any unsportsman-like conduct and will not tolerate such behavior from my players or spectators.

I will uphold the authority of the referee(s) who are assigned to the game in which I coach.

I will refrain from criticizing the referee(s) and I will assist them every way possible to conduct a fair and competitive contest.

I will avoid arguing with opposing coaches, player(s), referee(s) or spectators before, during or after a game.

I will learn the strengths and weakness of my players so that I can develop a training program to enhance their strengths and place them into situations that provide them with maximum opportunity to achieve success and development.

I will conduct and develop practices so that the players have an opportunity to improve their skill level through active participation and learning processes.

I will protect the health and safety of my players.

I will avoid running up the score on an opponent;
remember C.Y.O does not stand for Crush Your Opponent
