A Letter from Father Vince

Dear Parishioners,

As we approach the great Feast of Pentecost, we should all take some time to ask ourselves how we have used the gifts God has given us. What return have we made to the Lord for the blessings that are a part of our lives?

Last Sunday evening, more than forty adult members of our parish came together under the guidance of Donna Maccaroni to provide a retreat experience to our ninety-eight Confirmation candidates in preparation for their Confirmation. Some parishioners served as facilitators, others were presenters, others made sure all was in order and that the pizza was ready to go. This was another way of letting our young people know that the parish community is here to assist them in any way we can. It also gave them the opportunity to learn more about The Church of Saint Ann and some of the great service work that is done by members of our community.

We are blessed by the ninety-eight Confirmation candidates, great young women and men who have the potential to change the face of the earth. Please keep them in your prayers as they confirm their faith and receive the Sacrament of Confirmation, to be administered by Bishop Donald J. Reese, Bishop of Saint John's-Basseterre, British Virgin Islands, on Tuesday, May 25, at two ceremonies, one at 4:00 P.M. and the other at 7:00 P.M.

Special thanks to all who have helped prepare these candidates for Confirmation: Sister Carol, our catechists, the candidates' parents and sponsors, and the many others who helped with our Confirmation program.

Gratefully,
 Father Vince

NO EUCHARISTIC ADORATION NEXT TUESDAY DUE TO NECESSARY PREPARATIONS FOR CONFIRMATION

You are certainly free to come to church and pray on Tuesday; however, since we will be setting up for Confirmation, there will be movement in the church. The chapel will not be available since that will be a rain site for Confirmation line-up.

PARISH WOMEN'S GROUP

The women's group will meet on Monday, May 24, at 7:30 P.M. We will be discussing Chapter 6 of Hidden Women of the Gospels. All women of the parish are invited to attend. If you don't have access to the book, we can get a copy of the chapter for you. For more information, call Mary Lou Hartman, 921-9134.

Pentecost will be a WALK TO WORSHIP SUNDAY. We encourage all to put on their red clothes and WALK TO WORSHIP. If you live too far, then park on one of the side streets and walk at least a few blocks. This has the potential to be a great public witness. Remember, you need to start out a little early. It is good to have the neighbors and passersby asking, "What are those Catholics up to now?"

ANNOUNCING SAINT ANN NOVENA

As we celebrate the first Novena of the Church—the nine days from Ascension to Pentecost—we're excited to announce that our parish Saint Ann Novena for 2004 will begin with Sunday Mass on July 17/18 and end on the Feast of Saint Ann, Monday, July 26.

We are blessed to have as our retreat director Paulist Father James DiLuzio. Father DiLuzio is a missionary priest, actor, and playwright from New York City. This year's Novena promises to be an exceptional summer experience, based on the Gospel of Saint Luke and the non-canonical gospels that focus on the Infancy Narratives of James and their representation of Saint Ann, Saint Joachim, and Mary. Both the morning (9:00 A.M.) and evening (7:30 P.M.) sessions should be full, rich opportunities for prayer and reflection that you will not want to miss. Mark your calendar now and alert your friends and relatives to do the same; you will be glad you did. If you have Internet access, you can find out more about Father DiLuzio and his LUKE LIVE! at www.LukeLive.com.

NOVENA COMMITTEE SEEKING HELPERS

In order to present a rich, full Novena that gives honor to our patron, Saint Ann, and inspires our community, we need many hands. If you feel called to help, please let us know. There will be a meeting on Thursday, June 10, at 7:30 P.M. in the parish house conference room. We need servers of refreshments, flower and altar people, candle caretakers, atmosphere people, greeters, idea people, publicity, and daily coordinators. If you cannot make the meeting but are willing to help, please call Sister Beth at 882-6491.

We encourage all parish groups and committees to read the Sunday Gospel aloud before beginning a meeting, thus placing your ministry in the context of the mission of the Church.

Gospel for May 23, 2004

SEVENTH SUNDAY OF EASTER Jn 17: 20-26

Lifting up his eyes to heaven, Jesus prayed saying:

"Holy Father, I pray not only for them, but also for those who will believe in me through their word, so that they may all be one, as you, Father, are in me and I in you, that they also may be in us, that the world may believe that you sent me.

And I have given them the glory you gave me, so that they may be one, as we are one, I in them and you in me, that they may be brought to perfection as one, that the world may know that you sent me, and that you loved them even as you loved me.

Father, they are your gift to me. I wish that where I am they also may be with me, that they may see my glory that you gave me, because you loved me before the foundation of the world.

Righteous Father, the world also does not know you, but I know you, and they know that you sent me. I made known to them your name and I will make it known, that the love with which you loved me may be in them and I in them."

ADULT ENRICHMENT OPPORTUNITY

"THE THEOLOGY OF THE BODY"

A Roman Catholic Understanding of Marital Sexuality

Tuesday, June 1, at 7:30 P.M. - Daily Chapel Presenter: Gary Maccaroni
Our culture is saturated with images of sex and sexuality. In such a context, the voice of the Church is often misunderstood or ignored. This presentation places marital sex and sexuality in the context of religious faith and Catholic Church teaching. A "theology of the body" as developed by Pope John Paul II sets the framework for the discussion. Questions concerning the nature and purpose of marital sexuality, natural family planning, sex as a gift from God, awesome responsibility and sacred mystery will be examined.

The National Black Sisters' Conference will hold its Second National Gathering for Black Catholic Women, August 6-8, at the J.W. Marriott Hotel, Houston, Texas.
