LIFE'S ONLY WEALTH: Money has only one advantage: to make friends through love that shares and gives away. For love, which makes life fully alive, must generate love. It is life's only wealth. The man who has overcome his selfishness gains his life. Jesus says that to love God is the greatest love in a person's life and exists wherever we love our fellowmen as much as we love ourselves.

A LETTER FROM FATHER VINCE

Dear Parishioners,

On Wednesday of this week (June 23), I will celebrate the ninth anniversary of my installation as pastor of this Church of Saint Ann. I find it hard to believe that it has been nine years already. They have been nine wonderful years and I can't think of any other way I would have wanted to spend them than serving on your pastoral team. The anniversary provides me with the opportunity to say thanks so much to all who have been a part of this wonderful journey. You have made it a very exciting and faith-filled one. I am most grateful to Gary Maccaroni and Sister Beth Dempsey who have been serving with me for almost eight years and to our great staff and to Father Joe, Msgr. Toomey, Father Dougherty, and the other priests from Villa Vianney who are always so willing to lend a hand. But most especially I would like to thank our parishioners, who reflect God's love to me in unique and wonderful ways each and every day. Please know that you are in my prayers daily and I continue to count on yours.

Peace,
Father Vince

HAPPY FATHERS' DAY!

WHO CAN RECEIVE THE EUCHARIST?

Our parish policy is that each individual must make the decision as to whether or not they have the proper disposition to receive the Eucharist. This is not a decision to be made by those ministers who distribute the Eucharist. No one who comes forward will be denied. We presume that each person who presents himself or herself to receive the Eucharist has seriously reflected on their readiness to receive the Body and Blood of Christ. Guidelines for the reception of the Eucharist are printed on the inside cover of the missal found in every pew. The United States Catholic Conference established these guidelines; we encourage all to review them from time to time.

SAINT ANN SCHOOL MARKETING COMMITTEE LOOKING FOR HELP

Saint Ann School is a hidden treasure that we are working to make a little less hidden. Saint Ann School has been providing quality Catholic education for the past forty years. It has been a guiding light for many people through the years; we don't want to put that light under a bushel basket, but on a lamp stand for the whole world to see. The Saint Ann School Marketing Committee is looking for some new members with fresh ideas and a willingness to put a little time and effort into helping others become more familiar with the good qualities of Saint Ann School. If you have some background or skills you feel we could use and a willingness to serve on the committee for a year, please contact Mr. John McKenna, principal, at 882-8077, extension 11, as soon as possible.

Saint Ann School Begins Anniversary Year

With the close of this school year, Saint Ann School is preparing to open its doors for the 40th anniversary year in September of 2004. This should be a great year for our school and our parish. Saint Ann School has been offering quality Catholic education for the last forty years and plans to continue for another forty years. Keep your eye on the bulletin for the many special ways in which we plan to celebrate.

Welcome, Sister Rita!

We are happy to welcome to our parish Sister Rita Woehlcke, SSJ, who will continue her ministry as a Spiritual Director here at The Church of Saint Ann, working from the parish house. Sister Rita brings a wide range of gifts to our parish community. For the past four years, she has been part of the staff at the Vincenian Renewal Center in Princeton. In addition to her work as Spiritual Director, she directs a number of workshops and retreats for the Diocese of Trenton, most particularly the Institute of Lay Ecclesial Ministry.

Saint Ann Novena

Novena information should be in the mail within the next week. Please mark your calendar now for July 19-23, 9:00 A.M. and/or 7:30 P.M. Father James DiLuzio has been working on some research about Saints Ann and Joachim and about grandparents in the scriptures, as well as his wonderful presentation LUKE LIVE! The Novena provides a great opportunity for summer refreshment. Invite your family, friends, and neighbors to make the Saint Ann Novena a part of their summer plans.

FRENCH BOYS' CHOIR CONCERT

Les Petits Chanteurs du Comte de Flandre will perform at The Church of Saint Ann on Thursday, July 1, at 7:30 P.M. Concert is free and open to the public. A free-will offering will be collected. Please call Eleanor Kiel, 882-6491, extension 18, for additional information.

LOST AND FOUND

Next weekend we'll put out all the items we've collected in our Lost and Found. Among the found items are umbrellas, jewelry, and much more. Please come and check out what we have that might belong to you!

Peter's COLLECTION pence

Next week our parish will participate in the Peter's Pence Collection for the Works of the Holy Father. This collection enables the Holy Father to respond to requests for emergency funds from the most disadvantaged throughout the world. This special appeal is an opportunity to demonstrate justice and kindness to our brothers and sisters in need. Please pray for the Holy Father's works and contribute generously to the appeal.

MINISTRY RENEWAL REQUEST

Attention ALL parishioners presently serving in a ministry or desiring to serve! If you are part of a parish ministry (group or organization) as a choir member, CYO coach, catechist, committee coordinator, liturgical minister, usher, group leader, Knight of Columbus, receptionist, helping ministry, money counter, gardener, etc., or you want to sign on to a ministry (group or organization), please take a few minutes to complete the MINISTRY RENEWAL page in this week's bulletin. Bring it to church on June 26/27; we'll collect them at all the masses. If you are not here on June 26/27, please drop it in the collection basket the next time you are at mass or send it to the parish office before July 15.

Last year we began the process of yearly renewing our service to the parish. Over 400 people responded! We are asking all parishioners involved in a parish ministry (group or organization) to make an intentional response to renew (or rest from) God's call to ministry in this parish, whether you are new to a ministry or have served for the last ten years. Your response enables us to know how many people in the community have responded to God's call so that we can keep an accurate list, and serve you better. In addition, your response helps us promote the importance of ministry involvement to others, organize our records, and assist the wider community.

Thank you for your continued support and service to this parish community of Saint Ann.

We encourage all parish groups and committees to read the Sunday Gospel aloud before beginning a meeting, thus placing your ministry in the context of the mission of the Church.

Gospel for June 20, 2004

12th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Luke 9:18-24

Once when Jesus was praying in solitude, and the disciples were with him, he asked them, "Who do the crowds say that I am?" They said in reply, "John the Baptist; others, Elijah; still others, 'One of the ancient prophets has arisen.'" Then he said to them, "But who do you say that I am?" Peter said in reply, "The Christ of God." He rebuked them and directed them not to tell this to anyone.

He said, "The Son of Man must suffer greatly and be rejected by the elders, the chief priests, and the scribes, and be killed and on the third day be raised." Then he said to all, "If anyone wishes to come after me, he must deny himself and take up his cross daily and follow me. For whoever wishes to save his life will lose it, but whoever loses his life for my sake will save it."

Meditation: Who is Jesus for you? Many in Israel recognized Jesus as a mighty man of God, even comparing him with the greatest of the prophets. Peter, always quick to respond, professed that Jesus is truly the Christ. No mortal could have revealed this to Peter, only God. Through the eyes of faith Peter grasped who Jesus truly was. He was the first apostle to publicly recognize Jesus as the Christ. Christ is the Greek for the Hebrew word, Messiah. Peter's faith, however, was sorely tested when Jesus explained it was necessary for the Messiah to suffer and die so that God's work of redemption might be accomplished. How startled the disciples were when they heard this! How different are God's thoughts and ways from our own! Through humiliation, suffering, and death on the cross, Jesus broke the powers of sin and death and won us our salvation. If we want to share in Christ's victory, then we must also take up our cross and follow him. What is the "cross" that I must take up? When my will crosses with God's will, then his will must be done. To know Jesus Christ is to know the power of his death and resurrection. The Holy Spirit gives us the gift of faith to know Jesus personally, power to live the gospel faithfully, and courage to witness to others the joy and truth of the gospel. Who do you say that Jesus is?

BECOME INVOLVED IN SAINT ANN MUSIC MINISTRY!

Do you have a musical talent you would be willing to share with our parish? Consider becoming involved in Saint Ann Music Ministry. There are many opportunities to share your gifts with the parish. Our main goal as parish musicians is to help our community participate more fully, consciously, actively, and joyfully in musical worship. Please contact Eleanor Kiel, Director of Music Ministries, at 882-6491, ext. 18, for more information on how you can join the following groups.

- Saint Ann Youth Choir Open to singers in grades 4-12. Currently seeking new members, especially boys! Led by director Eleanor Kiel and accompanist Mark DeGuzman. Please fill out a registration form (can be found in church lobby) and return it to the parish office.
- Saint Ann Adult Choir Open to singers 18 and older. Currently seeking new members of all voice parts, but especially tenors and basses. Led by director Rosemary Iossa and accompanist Michael McCormick.
- Saint Ann Little Angels Choir Open to young singers in grades K-4. Currently seeking new members. Led by director Christi Fortier and accompanist Agnes McFadden.
- 12:30 Mass Band Open to musicians who are able to read music. Currently seeking drummer, bass player, and instrumentalists of any kind. Led by director Eleanor Kiel, lead guitarist Micah Kiel, and accompanist Mark DeGuzman.
- Saint Ann Resurrection Choir Sings for all Masses of Christian Burial at the parish. Open to singers 18 and older. Led by organists Eleanor Kiel and Rick Koreyva.
- Saint Ann Sunrise Choir Sings for 7:30 A.M. Masses. Open to singers of any age. Currently seeking new members. Led by accompanists Eleanor Kiel and Mary Beth Kazanski.
- Saint Ann Instrumentalists Play for special occasions and masses. Do you play a musical instrument and can you read music? Would you be willing to share your talent for special events, masses and/or holy days? Contact Eleanor Kiel for more information.

GET (A LITTLE) SUN TO HELP PREVENT CANCER

Wearing sunscreen all day, every day can make you vitamin D deficient—and can put you at risk for osteoporosis and various cancers. Sunscreen blocks UVB rays, which your body needs to make vitamin D. The antidote: “Go outside without sunblock for just five to ten minutes each day between the hours of ten and three,” says Michael Holick, M.D., author of The UV Advantage. It is just enough time to get the beneficial effects of sunlight without sacrificing your skin.

THANK YOU

The Church of Saint Ann is grateful to the family of
DR. ANTHONY JOSEPH MUCCIOLI
who, at the time of his death, requested that memorial contributions be made to our Faith Development Center in his name.

Why Catholic? Professing, Celebrating, and Living Our Faith. Meet the challenge of embracing our Catholic Faith as a comprehensive way of daily living in our neighborhoods, communities, businesses, and the world. Sheraton Meadowlands, East Rutherford, from July 8-11. Speakers: Sr. R. Scott Appleby, University of Notre Dame, and others. Contact RENEW International, 908-769, 5400, ext. 123, or www.renewintl.org.

PARKING COURTESY

Please remember others when parking on the street. Often, moving just a little closer to the car in front or behind you will allow three cars to fit where there were only two. Also, pulling all the way up to the ends of the driveways (please don't block them) might make room for another car. Thank you for your patience and understanding during construction.

Saint Ann's Congratulates All Our Graduates

On Sunday, June 27, we will honor and congratulate all parishioners who graduated or will graduate from high school or college in 2004. A special blessing will take place at all Masses and we hope to place the graduates' names in our parish bulletin. We will also create a bulletin board in our lobby with graduates' photographs. If you or someone you know from Saint Ann's is a graduate, please let us know. Please send photographs and names by mail or e-mail to Joanne Savino.

FAITHFUL CITIZENSHIP-A REPORT

Dear Friends,

On May 25, Deacon Ed Hoag and I attended a workshop called Faithful Citizenship at Saint Raphael Church. The focus of the day was to look at the statement The Challenge of Faithful Citizenship: A Catholic Call to Political Responsibility, recently issued by the U.S. Catholic Bishops. The workshop gave an overview of Catholic Social Teaching—a rich treasure of wisdom about building a just society and living lives of holiness amid the challenges of post-modern society. At the core of this body of wisdom is the life and dignity of the human person created in God's image.

The workshop's purpose was to raise awareness of how Catholic teaching can and should inform Catholics today, in particular, how Catholics can bring their faith into the society, especially in the political process. What contributions can Catholic teaching and the Catholic community make to our society? In the political arena, our society makes fundamental decisions about life and death, war and peace, and how the “least among us” will fare in a complex world. These decisions are of great importance, especially in light of the Gospel—so they demand a sense of urgency.

The day provided some good reflection and dialogue. I thought it interesting that the presenter focused on the “why” question, that is, “Why should Catholic teaching be concerned about politics?” I would like to share his answer with you:

1. Because the Church has always been involved in society and politics. This is not a new idea. Christianity seeks to transform society and culture, not let it go to its own accord.
2. Because the political debate is too ambiguous. Sound-bite political campaigns and a media that often focus on the extremes present an unclear picture that blurs the real issues and distorts the truth.
3. Because too many people are not participating in the process. We, as Catholics, could have a powerful effect on the process if we mobilized and moved out as a faith community. Think how New Jersey might look if Catholics, informed by the Gospel and Catholic Social Teaching, were more involved in the political process given that 60% of New Jersey is Catholic?
4. Because the Catholic community has a lot to offer. Catholics bring to public life broad experience in serving those in need. Every day the Catholic community educates the young, cares for the sick, shelters the homeless, feeds the hungry, assists needy families, welcomes refugees, and cares for the elderly. On many issues, we speak for those who have no voice. In addition, Catholics can be found both at the center of society and living on the edge. Catholics make up a large percentage of Congress, they are business and civic leaders, doctors and lawyers, and presidents of major universities. They are also the working poor, homeless, displaced, illegal immigrants, the fragile and voiceless. Finally, the Church offers a moral framework that is central to its mission. The Word of God and the teachings of the Church give us a particular way of viewing the world. Scripture calls us to “choose life,” to serve “the least of these,” to “hunger and thirst” for justice, and to be “peacemakers.” True democracy must be rooted in and never lose sight of its moral foundations.

The July 4 bulletin will contain a summary version of The Challenge of Faithful Citizenship. Our hope is to keep you informed and updated, especially as we move closer to the presidential election in November.

Gary Maccaroni

STORAGE SPACE NEEDED

Do you have an empty room, garage, or basement? The Lawrence Interfaith Housing Network (LIHN), a non-profit organization, is seeking temporary storage space for donations of household items, large and small, for needy families. If you can help, please call Wilma Francis at (609) 771-0908.

Dominican Retreat House, Elkins Park, Pennsylvania
Father Brendan Williams
Saturday, June 26 - 9:00 A.M. to 4:30 P.M.

Teaching and Preaching - Penance and Eucharist - Music Ministry S'elah. Noon meal provided. Registration $35. All proceeds will benefit the Dominican Retreat House. Please call Pat Moore at (856) 985-4287 or Pat Koch, (609) 859-3860, to obtain additional information.

CONSTRUCTION CORNER - NO. 7

Our front parking lots have been surfaced and are ready for use. We will begin to repair the back parking lots soon. PLEASE NOTE THE PARKING ARRANGEMENTS MAP that was in last week's bulletin. If you didn't get one last week, you can find one (it is a yellow flyer) at the church doors. We are asking everyone to be cautious and considerate as we find new places to park.

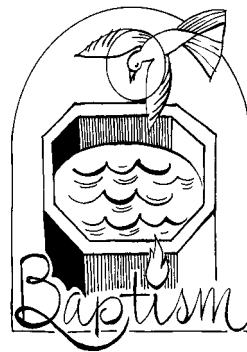

We have received building permits from Lawrence Township. With every permit goes a check to Lawrence Township; I thought you would be interested in what they cost:

$1,900	Site Permit
$27,000	Building Permits
$20,000	Down payment on Affordable Housing Tax (1% of cost of project)

The foundation is being excavated and the sanitation line and conduit to school will soon be installed. We are making progress and it is good to see the progress. We will keep you informed.
